OPENING CONDITIONS AT COLUMBIA EXCEED EXPECTATIONS OF PROMOTERS.

Governor Blease of South Carolina Graces Occasion with His Presence and Evinces Keen Interest in the Racing-Best Horses Take Purses.

Columbia, S. C., November 30.—The conditions attending the opening of the Columbia Racing Association's meeting here this afternoon could be termed an spicious and are regarded as promising well for the success of the venture. The attendance was good, the racing wholesome and much above expectations considering the poor quality of the material that furnished the contests. The betting was somewhat light, due to a lack of public knowledge as to the form of the horses. Six layers posted prices and they expressed satisfaction with conditions. Contrary to expectations, the local representation was large and evinced considerable interest in the racing. As an added attraction, aviator Paul Beck gave several successful flights in his monoplane between races.

Included among the notables who attended the pening was Governor Blease of South Carolina. The tate's chief executive took a lively interest in the racie's chief executive took a lively interest in the race's chief executive race's chief execution to the race's chief execution

The promoters indicated their satisfaction over e opening day's results and feel sanguine that the eding will prove a great financial success. Nearly entire Norfolk contingent, where racing closed lay, are expected to take part in the meeting here did their arrival will stimulate the game considerly. While a scarcity of racing material is evalent at present, the shortage will be overcome the influx from the Virginia track sets in a cars of racers arrived late tonight from Norfolk did nine additional cars are due tomorrow. Kentucky will also send a big representation, incling the horses of Gallaher Brothers, Ward & ber, Eugene Lutz and fifteen owned by J. W.

II. G. Bedwell's Rose Queen and Prince Ahmed ok first and second money in the handicap that atured today's card. The pair outclassed the opsition after Donau was left at the post as a result his stubborn acting. All the races were keenly contested from flag fall finish, the purses going to the best horses. There were many arrivals late tonight from Norsk and many more are due to arrive tomorrow, induling several bookmakers.

The grandstand is still in the rough, but continuis work on it will put it in fair shape by next eck.

A large circus tent was used for the betting ring, pending the erection of a permanent structure. It is expected that it will be finished by Monday.

The layers that posted prices today included, J. Blume, S. A. Clopton, J. W. Rice, Al Herford, Horace Paul and Oscar Bachman.

Jockey Forehand has contracted to ride for H. G. Bedwell and had his first mount in the Bedwell colors today.

Surfelt, a two-year-old that W. B. Carson acquired from Albert Simons, is in a bad way suffering from pneumonia.

Starter Milton's work with the barrier could not have been improved upon. The leaving of Donau and Our Nugget at the barrier was due to their wheeling when the start was effected. Both were placed on the schooling list.

ORIGIN OF THE ST. LEGER.

ORIGIN OF THE ST. LEGER.

The St. Leger, one of England's great turr classics, which had its 136th running this year, is named after a certain Colonel St. Leger, who four ished about 150 years ago at Park Hill, near Doncaster. He and his friends were theroughly imbued with the raching spirit, and they could not well help considering there had been horse racing in the heighborhood prior to 1600. This is beyond question. Those who began so unambitiously had little idea that in the future half of sporting England would be attracted to the Yorkshire town, and that his flourishing district would be able to have a race meeting conducted by the corporation.

The ruling body of the town of Doncaster takes all the profits of this four days' race meeting, and it has the effect of making the tax rates low, for the balance of profits is enormous. Consider, too, that a large proportion of the townspeople let their houses or rooms for the week at a high figure, and the hotels and shopkeepers have a big turnover in the way of takings, and some idea can be formed of what racing can do for a community.

What a difference nowadays with the scores of special trains emptying tens of thousands of people and motor carriages from all parts, to the camping ground of olden times when both the quality and "followers" began to arrive the previous week in stage coaches, post chalses, and private chariots. Then it was sport and gambling for morning to hight, cock lighting, hunting, freak matches, events in the prize ring, and at might roulette, dice, carls, and every device to cause money to change hands or circulate. I heard some extraordinary stories from my father, many of which doubtless were told to him, of the sporting spirit which pervaded every thing. But there was a certain picturesqueness about it that redeemed it all.

At various inns and lodgings gargantuan repasts, with enormous libbations of port and punch, were usually followed by talk about the races of the morrow and many fancy bets were made. And when the proposed in carr

There seems a curious fatality in recent years about the winner of the Derby taking the St. Leger. Sunstar, the Derby hero of this year, broke down and was scratched three weeks prior to the running of the St. Leger. The last Derby winner to take the St. Leger was Rock Sand. now the property of Mr. Angust Belmont of New York. This horse was one of nine "triple-crown" heroes—those that have taken the three great classic races, the Two Thousand Guineas, the Derby, and the St. Leger,—Marquis of Queensberry, in Chicago Tribune.

STATISTICS OF KENTUCKY RACING

Review of the Season Recently Ended, Illustrating Growing Importance of the Sport at Louisville, Latonia and Lexington Tracks

Kentucky racing for 1911 is at an end after a season of the sport that probably is entitled to characterization as the most successful, all things considered, in the long and honorable history of the pastime in the Blue Grass State, the acknowledged home of the thoroughbred in America. Profiting from the suspension of racing in New York state, the three racing organizations under the jurisdiction of the Kentucky State Racing Commission, conducted meetings that were notable for the brilliancy of the racing and the high quality of the sport generally.

Each of the three tracks in the state—Churchill Downs, Latonia and Lexington—conducted spring and fall meetings that embraced an aggregate of 116 racing days, as compared with 112 days in 1910 and the same number in 1909. The distribution for the year in stakes and purses reached the highly satisfying total of $462,799, as compared with $355,999 in 1910 and $268,215 in 1909. This is a remarkable showing and strikingly illustrates the constantly increasing importance of Kentucky racing. The figures for 1911 represent an increase of $106,800 in distribution over 1919 and a gain of $194,584 over 1909. The daily average distribution for the year is $3,989.65, as against $3,178.56 for 1910 and $2,394.69 during 1909. All three racing organizations—the Kentucky Association, the Louisville Racing Association and the Latonia Jockey Club—contributed to the increase in proportionate degree.

By decree of the Kentucky State Racing Commission, the auction pool form of betting, which had been permitted in conjunction with the parl-mutuel method following the abolition of bookmaking on the Kentucky tacks several years ago, was ordered discontinued prior to the opening of the fall meetings and the parl-mutuels constitute now the only legal method for betting in connection with the races in Kentucky. The parl-mutuels are popular in Kentucky and the sport will doubtest continue to thrive with that exclusive method of speculation.

H. C. Hallenbeck and R. F. Carman, two wealthy New Yorkers who raced pretentious strings on the circuit, stand respectively first and second in the list of money-winning owners. The former, whose horses are handled by trainer F. M. Taylor, finished the season with $24,480 to his credit, the lion's share of which was won by his crack two-year-old colt, Worth. In Mr. Carman's stable earnings of $22,187, Meridian, the Kentucky Derby winner of 1911, played an important part. The stable of John W. Schorr, of Memphis, is a creditable third with winnings of $18,393. Others above the $10,000 mark include George M. Odom, J. R. Wainwright and T. C. McDowell. JUAREZ OPENING PLEASES

FULLY FOUR THOUSAND SPECTATORS WIT-NESS RACING AT MEXICAN COURSE.

Round the World Beats Follie Levy in Stake Feature of Excellent Program-Management and Patrons Well Satisfied with Opening.

El Paso, Tex., November 30.—The third meeting of the Jockey Club Juarez began this afternoon under most auspicious circumstances. The attendance was excellent, fully four thousand persons being in attendance. The weather was a trific cool, but spiendid for racing purposes, as the sun shone brightly all afternoon.

The racing was exceedingly spirited and the form of the horses was well observed. The patrons evidently appreciated the good contests, as from the first race, in which Napa Nick was victorious, to the last, which was won by John Louis, they manifested the keenest interest.

Round the World, W. G. Yanke's grand filly, won the Dos Republicas Handicap in a drive with Follie Levy and Harrigan. Molesworth handled her to excellent advantage, reserving her in the early stages and only making his move in the final furlong, when she wore Follie Levy down gradually and passed the judges' stand with an advantage of half a length. Evidently Follie Levy has not yet become acclimated, as, after showing a high turn of speed, she began to weaken at the end. Harrigan made a good showing, but had all he could do to stand off Arasee and Irish Gentleman at the finish. Both of these horses ran excellent races. Enfield, on account of his good form in the north last summer, came in for solid support, but failed dismally and ran nowhere like expectations.

W. G. Yanke purchased Oakland this morning from S. Judge, representing O. A. Bianchi, for $1,500.

J. G. Follansbee, the newly elected president of the Jockey Club Juarez was present and acted as a steward. Mr. Follansbee expressed himself as highly delighted with the prospects for this winter's meeting.

Starter Cassidy was in excellent form and dispatched his fields with celerity. He used the standing start method today.

Jockey Whatley was suspended by the starter for days for disobedience at the barrier on Autumn Rose.

Nine layers were in line in the ring, the list being made up of George Rose, W. G. Yanke, F. Shannon, Roy Offutt, I. Ham, F. Frankel, J. Morris, Shelby Oliver and C. T. Brownfield, There was also a combination book and a field book. The ring was prorated at $1,800 daily, the cut-in being for two days.

Among the spectators, Frank G. Hogan of Pasadena, and W. W. Sinn, one of the leading spirits of the Coeur d'Alene Fair and Racing Association, were prominent.

Col. Matt Winn expressed himself as thoroughly satisfied with the opening day's racing and attendance and with the outlook for the winter.

NORFOLK MEETING COMES TO CLOSE.

Big Crowd Turns Out-Superstition Wins Stake Race and Sager Takes Overnight Handicap.

Rig Crowd Turns Out—Superstition Wins Stake Race and Sager Takes Overnight Handicap.

Norfolk, Va., November 30.—The closing day of the Jamestown Jockey Club's meeting brought out a bumper crowd. A splendid program was provided by the club. There were two handicaps, one a hurdle over the two miles' course and the Charleston Handicap for all ages at one mile. The feature race, the Thanksgiving Selling Stakes, at one mile and an eighth, brought a shifty band of platers to the post, all of the seven that were carded starting. This race proved rather easy for old Superstition, which led his opponents from start to finish, and won easily from Beaucoup. The latter showed a good performance and made a determined challenge at the furlong post, but after being unable to head the leader, quit. On account of the condition of the track, a liberal price was quoted against Superstition, as good as 7 to 1 being obtainable at one stage of the speculation. Only two favorites won, their successes coming with the running of the fifth and sixth races. In the latter race, Bounder was virtually backed off the boards, going to the post at 3 to 5.

The Charleston Handicap went to Barney Schreiber's Sager, which scored his fourth victory of the meeting. In today's race he was reserved behind the pace to the stretch turn, where he moved up on the outside, and at the end drew away at his leisure, winning easily by a length and a half.

The betting in the hurdle race looked suspicious to the stewards, Black Bridge being heavily supported and a short price being accepted against his chances. NOTES OF THE TURF.

Martin Nathanson will leave Chicago tomorrow for Columbia, S. C., and will take up his duties as presiding steward for the Columbia Racing Asso-ciation on Monday.

Frank J. Gould's Cavero, Chapman up, won the Prix Cup at the Auteuil course in France Wednesday. Harry La Montagne's Fred Keane, trained by Pres-ton Burch and ridden by O'Leary, ran second for the Prix Trocadero.

William O. Scully was a recent visitor at Sheepshead Bay. He is handling four horses, including Reybourn, at Benning, where he has opened a public stable and in which he hopes to develop another Hypocrite or Leonora Loring.

THOROUGHBRED WORK IN CANADA.

Norfolk, Va., November 30.—John F. Ryan, founder of the Montreal Jockey Club, the Canadian National Bureau of Breeding and the Canadian Live Stock Exchange, who was here yesterday, reports a great many men in Montreal and vicinity have recently gone in for raising thoroughbreds. He says that there should be at least forty or fifty three-year-olds eligible for the Quebec King's Plate of 1914 and that these will represent thirty or forty owners.

1914 and that these will represent thirty or forty owners.

The breeding bureau work has progressed wonder, rully and has made many friends for the thoroughbred. No part of Canada has been left untouched, and the thoroughbred has been a success everywhere.

The National Live Stock Exchange has been started to handle the bureau crop for the cavalry market and also to take charge of the heavy horses which are coming in large numbers from England, Scotland, France and Belgium for the Canadian west.

west.
It is planned to have thoroughbred sales, stallion shows, horse parades and a big annual winter fair which will receive government aid and be of special interest to the farmers of eastern Canada.

Some of the biggest men in Canada are interested in the National Exchange, and an effort will be made to make Montreal the horse market of Canada.
